John Robert Howie, Howie Law, PC, Dallas, TX, for petitioner.

Robert Paul Coleman, III, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC, for respondent.

RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On March 10, 2017, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) due to a Hepatitis B vaccination received on May 20, 2015. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On April 25, 2018, respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, respondent “agrees that petitioner’s SIRVA was caused-in-fact by the hepatitis B vaccination administered in her left arm on May 20, 2015. Id. at 2.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all “§” references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

Respondent further agrees that no other causes for petitioner's SIRVA were identified, the statutory six month sequela requirement has been satisfied and, thus, "petitioner has satisfied all legal prerequisites for compensation under the Act." Id.

In view of respondent's position and the evidence of record, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
